

Bike it Brighton Terms & Conditions 2020

Terms and Conditions:

This event is not a race and all riders must obey traffic laws and the Highway Code and show consideration towards other road users.

The route uses roads that are open to traffic and that cycling on public roads or the Velodrome is a potentially hazardous activity and that I am responsible for my own safety and any necessary insurance.

The organisers cannot be held responsible for any personal injury, accident, loss, damage or public liability.

My bicycle should be in a safe, legal and roadworthy condition.

It is strongly recommended that I wear a helmet and that it is my responsibility if I choose not to and am aware that a helmet is compulsory on the Velodrome.

I must be in reasonable health and fitness and will consult my GP in advance if in doubt.

I should not be under the undue influence of drink or drugs except for the use of prescription medicines where my judgement and reaction times would not be impaired.

If I am responsible for a child under 16 or a vulnerable adult taking part in the event that I will stay with them at all times.

I need to train ahead of the ride and am aware of the distances and terrain involved.

I am responsible for managing my intake of food and drink and ensuring I am appropriately attired, including the use of sun cream as necessary to ensure I do not suffer any ill effects during or after the ride.

I must abide by any directions given to me by the event organisers on safety grounds.

I must not knowingly leave the route of the ride and that if I do so I may not be able to continue on the ride or may have to do so without support or signage.

I should show consideration towards local communities through which the ride passes, such as by not dropping litter or causing any unnecessary disturbance.

If I fail to turn up for the event, that no refund will be due, although the organisers may allow me free entry to the following year's event (should it take place) at their discretion.

I accept to being contacted by email before the event with information about health and safety with regards to preparing for and participating in the event. I also agree to being contacted by phone should there be any queries regarding my entry.
